Obituary

"Now the laborer's task is o're
Now the battle day is past
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last."

Many hearts were saddened on Wednesday afternoon, January 8, 1975, when the death angel came into the room of Grover Butler and eternally sealed his lips.

The hearty laugh, those who knew him came to enjoy will be heard no more.

Grover Butler was born child to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Butler, July 7, 1915, in Camden County, Georgia. Here he grew and attended the public schools of this county.

He married Carrie B. Hunt on July 25, 1938.

He joined Oak Hill Methodist Church under Rev. C.O. Gordan where he served as custodian, sang in the choir, and was class leader number five.

He leaves to mourn a devoted wife, Carrie Bell, one step son, LeRoy Brunswick of White Oak, Georgia; two step daughters, Ollie B. Williams of White Oak and Rose L. Lawrence of Jacksonville, Florida; five brothers, Townsend, Mose and Clifton Butler of White Oak, Joseph and Ben Butler of Jacksonville, Florida; three sisters, Renelda Shaw of Glynnville, Georgia, Louida Wilson of White Oak, and Inez Rudolf of Folkston; four aunts, Eliza Rudolph of St. Marys, Sarah J. Butler of Brunswick Georgia, Sweetsy James of Statenville, Georgia, and Liddy Owens of Jacksonville, Fla.; fourteen step grandchildren; four step great grandchildren; six sisters-in-law, Nora, Dorothy and Irene Butler of White Oak, Mary Butler and Annie Hunt of Jacksonville Florida and Rose Gholston of Woodbine; one step daughter-in-law, Gladys Brunswick of White oak, two step sons-in-law, Levi Lawrence of Jacksonville, Florida, and Joe L. Williams of White Oak; four brothers-in-law, Frank Wilson of White Oak, Levie Shaw of Glynnville, Georgia, George Hunt of Jacksonville, Florida, Adam Rudolph of Folkston; and host of neices, nephews, cousins, and saddened friends.

"Father in Thy gracious keeping- leave we now Thy servant sleeping."
