OBITUARY

It is said that there are 3 words in the English vocabulary more solemn than all of the others. They are Life, Death and Eternity. Life is more solemn than Death—to live is more serious than to die. The object of Christ's death was life. A Christian death gives them a more abundant life. Death is a joyful messenger of Peace, whose kind hand opens to the weary Pilgrim the gate of immortality and lets the oppressed go free.

A life came to a close Monday, Feb. 4, 1985 when Mrs. Annie Woodard, the fifth child of Amy and Dan Givens, was called home. Mrs. Annie was born and reared in Camden County, Georgia, where she lived for 79 years. She was known by everyone in the community. While still young, she joined Oak Hill Methodist Church and attended for generations.

On Nov. 21, 1922 she was married to Dewey Woodard, Sr., and to this union 14 children were born. Eight preceeded her in death.

Her homegoing saddened many hearts, some of which are a loving husband, Dewey; 2 daughters, Aggie B. Tyson, Brunswick, Ga.; Lillie Roache, Waynesville, Ga.; 4 sons: Edward, Dewey, Jr., Walter, and Robert Woodard, all of Waynesville, Ga; one foster son, Roosevelt Williams; one brother, Leron (Fargo) Givens, Deland, Fla.; one stepdaughter, Dorothy Hutchinson, Woodbine, Ga.; 5 daughters-in-law, Ivory, Lenora, Bessie, Marie and Carrie Lee Woodard, all of Waynesville, Ga.; one son-in-law, Floyd Hutchinson; 2 sisters-in-law, Laura Givens, Waynesville; Hattie M. Givens, Deland, Fla.; 26 grandchildren, 7 step-grandchildren, 32 step-great-grandchildren, 1 great-great-grandchild; 9 step-great-great-grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and saddened friends.

*"There is a reaper whose name is death
And with his sickle keen
He reaps whom he will at a breath
He comes but cannot be seen."*
