Obituary

*I would be ready to give my life, but not my faith.
I am nothing, He is all. I do nothing of my own, He does it.
That is what I am, God's pencil, a tiny bit of pencil with which He writes what He likes. God writes through us, and however imperfect instruments we may be, He writes beautifully.*

IDA SYLVIA BENJAMIN was born on December 4, 1907 in Jesup, Wayne County, Georgia, to Damps and Lilla Moody.

She was educated in the Wayne County School system.

She moved to Camden County, Georgia around the year of 1938-1939. After residing several years in this county, she met and later married Levi Benjamin, where they lived in the Jerusalem Community, Ida was one of thirteen siblings, all of whom preceded her in death.

She joined the Jerusalem No. 1 Baptist Church and served as a Choir member for many years until her health began to fail.

Ida Sylvia Benjamin departed this world on January 27, 2001, at SunBridge Rehabilitation Center, Brunswick, Georgia, leaving to cherish her memory one daughter, Valencia Hamilton of White Oak, Georgia; two grandsons: Marquis Samuel and Christopher Moore, both of White Oak, Georgia; one brother-in-law Eddie (Algertha) Benjamin of White Oak, Georgia. God blessed Mrs. Benjamin with a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins through her marriage to Levi; also three nieces: Beatrice (Donald) Smith of Alma, Georgia, Irma (Memphis) George of Waycross, Georgia, Annie Holmes of Ima, Georgia, and one nephew R.J. Moody of Douglas, Georgia, siblings of her sisters and brothers; three God sons: Nathan Hamilton, Sr., Theodore Parrish, and John E. Zow; one God daughter Queenie Waye; a very special friend, Mrs. Mattie Mae Roche, a host of other relatives, and sorrowing friends.
