

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord:
he that believeth in Me, though he were
dead, yet shall he live;
and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die.

I know that my Redeemer liveth,
and that He shall stand at the latter day
upon the earth;
and though this body be destroyed, yet shall I see God;
whom I shall see for myself and mine eyes shall behold,
and not as a stranger.

For none of us liveth to himself,
and no man dieth to himself.
For if we live, we live unto the Lord;
and if we die, we die unto the Lord,
Whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord:
even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

THE OBITUARY

LEATHA A. McKINNON (86) of 11654 Jackman Cove Lane, Jacksonville, Florida, departed this life on Friday, January 5, 1996 at Memorial Hospital.

She retired at the age of eighty from Lewis Crab Factory, in Brunswick, Georgia.

Leatha was born to James and Clara Atkinson, March 17, 1909, in Zirkle, Georgia. She was the second of eight siblings.

She was married to the late French McKinnon, who predeceased her in 1960.

To cherish her memories, she leaves three daughters: Dora Johnson, with whom she resided; Clara Parker and Ella Thompson of Miami, Florida; seven sons: Hosea Hudson (Dorothy) and Nathaniel Stephens (Sadie) of Jacksonville, Florida, Oscar Stephens of Blackshear, Georgia, John Stephens (Lee) of Lake City, Florida, Henry Benefield (Minnie), Arthur Benefield, and Oliver Benefield (Barbara) of Folkston, Georgia; two brothers: Willie James Atkinson of Kansas City, Missouri, Isaac Moses (Gwinnette) of Blackshear, Georgia; four sisters: Missie Richardson of Jacksonville, Florida, Laura Riley of Zephyrhills, Florida, Lessie Atkinson of Blackshear, Georgia and Mozell Moore of Jesup, Georgia; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and many special friends to mourn her passing.

*There are many things in life
we cannot understand,
But we must trust God's Judgement
and be guided by his hand...
And all who have God's blessing
can rest safely in His care,
For He promises safe passage
on the wings of faith and prayer.*
