OBITUARY

William Henry Tyson was born December 20, 1924 in Camden County, Ga. He was the fourth son of Henry Tyson and Martha Kite Tyson. William was educated in the public schools of Camden.

William resided in Cincinnati, Ohio for most of his life and later moved back home. He will be remembered for his ability to play the guitar and sing. He sang with several spiritual groups while in Ohio. After moving back to Georgia, he joined oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

William went home to be with the Lord on Monday, January 19, 1998 at St. Vincent Hospital in Jacksonville, Florida.

He leaves to cherish sweet memories, a loving and devoted wife, Doris A. Tyson; three sons: William Murphy Tyson, Kevin Thomas, and Najkii Thomas; two daughters, Charlene Gardener, Tampa, Fla., and Tinie Bates (preceded him in death); three sisters: Lillian Rudolph (George), Inez Denmark, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Sallie Peterson (Robert), Folkston, Ga.; mother-in-law, Fannie Burroughs; father-in-law, J. L. Thomas (Juanita); brother-in-laws: Joseph Jordan (Victoria), and Lonnie Thomas (Faye); sixteen grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and sorrowing friends. A devoted nephew, Michael Brooks, and a devoted friend, Elnora Johnson.
