Obituary

"Then Star by Star declines
Till all are Past away
As morning high and higher Shines
Is a purer and perfect day."

Christianity does not exempt one from death; it only insures triumph over death. All eventually must die.

Mr. McKinly Chance was born September 6, 1896, in Camden County, Georgia, here he was raised and attended the public schools.

He served his country in the U. S. Army as a soldier in World War I; and received an honorable discharge.

On March 14, 1931, he was joined in holy wedlock to Miss Mary Williams and to this union six children were born.

Mr. Chance was well known and loved by all who knew him. He departed this life on Monday, October 29, 1973. He leaves to mourn; his devoted wife, Mary; three daughters, Mrs. Equilla Green, Oldtown, Fla., Mrs. Fredonia Brown, Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Shirley Lyle of Jersey City, N.J.; three sons, Mr. William V. and John S. Green, White Oak, Ga., and Mr. Douglas M. Chance, Columbus, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. Katie L. Flanders, Brunswick, Ga. and Mrs. Ollie M. Ealey, White Oak, Ga.; one brother, Mr. Roosevelt Chance of Colesburg, Ga.; three sons-in-law, Mr. Jesie Green, Oldtown, Fla., Mr. James Brown, Jacksonville, Fla.; and Mr. William Lyle, Jersey City, N.J.; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Tonda L. Chancey, White Oak, Ga.; six brothers-in-laws, seven sisters-in-laws, ten grandchildren and a host of loving nieces and nephews and sorrowing friends.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark
And May there be no sadness of farewell
When I Embark.
