Obituary

No more sorrow will be mine. No more burdens will I bear.

No more heartaches will I endure.

Weighted down with endless care. Rest, Now.

While hear on earth I did my best; a friend to all I tried to be. This day, no regrets I have. While you are here look at me. Rest, Now.

No more will I fret and worry, about what a day might bring. I go now to a City, where God's holy angels sing. Rest, Now.

Estella Wilson was born on November 26, 1911 in Camden County, Georgia. She was the third child of Deacon Garfield and Amy Wilson.

She was educated in the Camden County Schools.

Estella lived in Camden County for most of her life.

She resided in Savannah, Georgia for a short period of time.

She joined the Jerusalem No.1 Baptist Church at an early age. She devoted her ministry to being a doorkeeper in the house of the Lord. She served as the Usher Board President for many years until her health began to fail.

Estella Wilson departed this old world on March 29, 2001 at Southeast Georgia Regional Medical Center in Brunswick, Georgia.

God didn't bless Sister Wilson with any children, but she was a blessing and mother to the following: Henry (Vandora) Baker of Spring Bluff Community, Waverly, Georgia, along with two grandchildren, Jamie Baker and Pamela Ann Murphy. With this son comes also four great grandchildren; Cynthia Wilson (Aaron) Walker of Meridian, Georgia, along with one grandson, John (LaJoy) Wilson. With this daughter comes one granddaughter, Tamarah Mills and three great grandchildren, John Jr., Parrish, and Paxon, all of Brunswick, Georgia; one sister-in-law, Luida Wilson of White Oak, Georgia; one brother-in-law, Henry Brunswick of Folkston, Georgia. She was also bless with a host of nieces, nephews, including grand and great grand nieces and nephews, a host of cousins, and sorrowing friends.
