Obituary

*Beloved It is Well
God's ways are always right
And perfect love is over them all
Though far above our sight"*

Saturday, September fourth one we knew and loved stepped across the threshold that we call death, but it was only a step into another room and not a stepping out of the fellowship of life. It was but a step into one of the other rooms of our Fathers House.

Lee Roy (Buster) is at peace with God now, rejoicing in his happy heavenly home. We must not mourn as those without hope for Leroy has gone to get the great reward promised to us by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Lee Roy (Buster) Brunswick was born September 4, 1931 in Camden County, Georgia to Carrie Bell Hunt and Henry Brunswick. He was educated in the public schools of Camden County. He was a member of Clinch Chapel Church. He served his Country in the United States Army for thirteen years.

He leaves to mourn his going away a wife Gladys Brunswick of White Oak, Georgia; three daughters, Rose Mary Lyttle (James) Savannah, Georgia, Mary Ann Dawson (Lemon) Kingsland, Ga., Sarah Overstreet (Anthony) Okinawa, Japan; two sons, Henry Artis and Leroy Jr., White Oak, Ga.; mother, Carrie Bell Butler; father, Henry Brunswick; two sisters, Ollie Bell Williams (Joe) White Oak, Ga., Rosa Lee Lawrence (Levi) Jacksonville, Fla.; aunt, Ollie Mae Hunt, Springfield, Ga.; uncle, George Hunt (Annie) Jacksonville, Fla.; two step daughters, Jannie Bell Roberts (Rodney) Midway, Ga., Annie Williams, Savannah, Ga., twenty-one grandchildren, six great grandchildren, two devoted friends, William and Tonda Chance and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and sorrowing friends.

*Beloved, it is well
The path that Jesus trod
Though rough and strait and dark it be
Leads Home to heaven and God*
