Obituary

Brother David Johnson was born on August 1, 1909 in Camden County, Tarboro, Georgia. He was the son of the late Adeline and Alee Johnson. He attended school in Camden County.

At an early age he moved from Camden County and resided in Jacksonville, Florida, where he remained for a period of time. Later he relocated in Philadelphia, Penn. While in Philadelphia, he was employed in the construction business. There he met Estelle Hector and was united in marriage in 1964. He became a member of the St. Paul Baptist Church, where he remained until moving to Brunswick, Ga. He resided in Brunswick with his daughter, Ada J. Williams and in 1995, he joined Shiloh Baptist Church. He peacefully slept away at the home of his daughter on Monday, Feb. 26, 1996 at 11:00 A.M.

He leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memory - a wife: Mrs. Estelle H. Johnson; A devoted and loving daughter, Ada J. Williams; One brother, Joe Johnson, of Brunswick, Ga.; One sister, Mary Smart of White Oak, Ga.; Seven grandchildren: Ada Hamilton (Nathan), Woodbine, Ga., Ruthie Salter (Jake), Miami, Fla., Mamie Williams, Dorothy Williams, Roosevelt Williams, Carolyn Anderson (Marcus), and David Williams, all of Brunswick, Ga. Eighteen great grand children, and ten great, great, grands. Three sisters-in-laws; One devoted nephew, Frankie Hayward of Philadelphia, Penn. A host of other nephews, nieces, and sorrowing friends.

*Tis sun down children and can't be late
My master and I have an early date
My promise kept and my duty fulfill Cause here on earth, I did my fathers's will Tis time out my friend I just got to go
The lily of the valley wrote it so
He sent an angel to put me to sleep
Now, now, why do you weep?
My harvest is all over and crops all in My God delivered me from this world of sin
He closed my eyes and sealed my lips
Touch me gentle with his finger tips
Blow taps now, for I must call it a day
I've packed my burdens and I'm headed the other way.*
