Angel Gone Home

You were born into this world for us to enjoy

Spreading your cheer to the ones you loved and adored

Picking us up when we were down

Making us smile when we would frown

Your gift of life could brighten anyone's day

Cause you always knew what to do and exactly what to say

The things you did can never be replaced

You left a legacy that can never be erased

We laughed together, we cried together

The memories we have will last forever

The lives you touched will tell your story

We cherish your memory and honor your glory

Your touch, your smile, your hugs and your kiss-

Your life was precious and you will always be missed

We will always love you and try to be strong

Because we know that God simply called another Angel home.
