Obituary

Willie James (Son) Armstrong was born July 7, 1928 in Jefferson, Georgia. He was the second child of the late Willie Armstrong, and Willie Mae Cato Armstrong.

He confessed Christ as his Savior at an early age and joined Carnegie United Methodist Church in the Kinlaw Community.

He attended the public schools in Camden County and later joined the United States Army. After his tour of duty, he moved to the Bronx, New York, where he resided for thirty six years. After retiring from his employment of many years, he returned to Camden County in 1990. He was a member of the American Legion Post 511.

He leaves to mourn his departing, a loving wife, Carrie Bell Armstrong, 3 daughters, Gloria Armstrong of New York City, Clarissa Wilson and Patricia Dooly (James) of Richmond, Virginia, a devoted step-son, Ronald McDougler of Kingsland, 4 grandchildren, Perry Pruitt, Micheal Watson, Danielle Dooley, and Andre M. Dooley, 4 sisters, Annie Tyce of Bronx, N.Y., Espie Waye of Kingsland, Pearlie Mae Armstrong of New York, and Janie M. Woods (Andrew) of Atlanta, Georgia. One brother, Theodore Armstrong of New York. Mother-in-law, Mrs. Etta Mae Holmes of Kingsland. Two sister-in-laws, Myrtle Rauls (James) of Kingsland, and Mildred Ellis of Woodbine, Ga. A host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends.

(Miss Me--But Let Me Go)

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your heads bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss Me--But let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of our Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

Miss Me--But Let Me Go!
