OBITUARY

*Tis Sundown children and can't be late
 My Master and I have an early date.
 My promise kept and my duty fulfill
 'cause here on earth, I did my father's will.
 Tis time out my friend, I just got to go.
 The Lily of the Valley wrote it so.
 He sent an angel to put me to sleep.
 Now, now, why do you weep?
 My harvest is all over and crops all in.
 My God delivered me from this world of sin.
 He closed my eyes and sealed my lips.
 Touched me gentle with his finger tips.
 Blow taps now, for I must call it a day.
 I've packed my burdens and I am headed the other way.
 Cry only now for me, quietly in the still of the night,
 For I'll be waiting for your heavenly flight.*

Mr. Garfield (Billy) Wilson was born November 5, 1917 to the late Mr. Garfield Wilson, Sr. and the late Mrs. Amy Mitchell Wilson. He was the sixth oldest child. He departed this life March 5th at Lake City Veterans Hospital.

He attended the public schools of Camden County. He was a World War II Veteran. He was united in Marriage to the late Lenora Powell. He joined the Jerusalem No. 1 Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. James Pinkeny, where he served until his health began to fail him.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter, Mrs. Willette Glover; three sisters, Mrs. Laura Bell Kight, Mrs. Lou Ida Kight, and Mrs. Estelle Wilson of White Oak, Georgia; one brother, Mr. Frank Wilson of White Oak, Georgia; one son-in-law, Mr. Donna Lee Glover, two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Luida Wilson and Mrs. Thelma Powell of Virginia; four brothers-in-law, Mr. Soloman Edwards, Sr. of Miami, Florida, Mr. Douglas Kight, Mr. Henry Brunswick of White Oak, Georgia and Mr. Ruben Powell of Virginia; one grand-daughter, Alanie Glover; three nieces; nine nephews; eleven grand nieces; eight grand nephews; a host of great-grand nieces and nephews; a devoted friend, Mrs. Alberta Green of Folkston, Georgia and many sorrowful friends.
