"Let's Not Say Good Bye"

*Because it sounds too final
As if we were closing the door on all we've shared
As if we were closing the door on each other,
So let's not say good-bye
Let's leave a window in our hearts
And in our lives for that someday
When the time maybe right to say hello again.*

*I am tired now so let me rest
Don't cry, don't you know God knows best
Please, no sad hearts, no hung down heads
Don't weep for me for I'm not dead
I have another home you know.*

*I have done the best I could
So let me rest from this life of pain.
For, now, good night family,
I'll see you in the morning.*

Obituary

She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Proverbs 31:20,21 &31

Maisha Naomi Roberts, affectionately known to many of her family and friends as "NiNi", went home to be with the Lord on June 12, 2016. She was born July 2, 1976 to Evelyn Roberts Franks.

Maisha dedicated her life to Christ at an early age and joined her family's church, Greater Trinity United Methodist Church. She later joined and supported other churches and pastors, whom she loved and respected dearly: Refreshing Oasis Church under the leadership of Dr. Mack De'Von Knight and Bishop Kenny Knight, Emanuel Empowerment Temple under the leadership of Overseer Chris Moore, and lastly, Eagle's Wings Judah Worship Center under the leadership of Bishop Patrick Ford.

Maisha was a 1994 graduate of Camden County High School and she later pursued her education at West Georgia College in Carrollton, Georgia. Maisha had a special gift for loving, caring, sharing and supporting any and all that she came in contact with. She never met a stranger and was willing to lend a helping hand. She had a BIG heart and often sacrificed herself to help others!

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: A loving mother, Evelyn Roberts Franks (Curtis Cummings) of St. Marys, GA; a loving godson, Ziere Lattany; A special and devoted sister, Shaliqua (Stephen) Smith of Kingsland, GA; two special nephews: Shai and Shaad Smith; a Godmother, Mrs. Thelma Myers of Kingsland, GA; three aunts: Barbara (Wendall) Hubbard of Inglewood, CA., Carol (George) Morrison of Brunswick, GA - one that shared a special bond of closeness, Peggy (John) Kennedy of Bainbridge, GA; one uncle: Jerry (Cheryl) Smith of St. Marys, GA; two great uncles: Gerald (Betty) Roberts of St. Marys, GA, Harvey (Willie) Campbell of Atlanta, GA; two special cousins: LaKeisha (Donnie) Paul of Independence, MO and Erik (Vickie) Campbell of Jacksonville, FL.

Also to cherish her memories is her Florence Nightingale - Dionne Southall and other siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins, and special friends.
