Life's Journey

*Perfect submission, all is at rest;
I in my Savior am happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with his goodness, lost in his love.*

Jenkins Baker was born on August 27, 1935 to the late Mertie B. Rudolph in Woodbine, Georgia. He departed his earthly vessel to be with the Lord on March 31, 2009. Jenkins was self-employed most of his life; however, he retired from the trucking industry in 2006. He was united in holy matrimony to Gerline Anthony in 1954. To this union six children were born. Jenkins' mother preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Gerline Baker; his children, Dr. Maeetta Baker Johnson, Savannah, GA, Mertice Anders (Lacy), Giovanni Everett (Valda), Nathaniel Baker (Jenean), Sylvester Baker (Jennifer), Arthur Baker (Betty), and Calvin Baker (Lynette), all of Woodbine, GA. He will be sadly missed by his three sisters, Betty Long (James), Hampton, VA, Loufera Miller (William), Woodbine, GA, and Alice Postell, Augusta, GA; three aunts, Ceila Rudolph, Tarboro, GA, Eliza Rudolph, Hinesville, GA, and Bertha Rudolph, Woodbine, GA; two uncles, Sylvester Baker and Ed Baker, Brunswick, GA; sixteen grandchildren; a number of great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Galatians 6:7,9

I'm Free

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no lights in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your heads bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It is all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know.
Bury your sorrows among the trees
And miss me, but let me go.*
