When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set free

Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we all shared
Miss me but let me go__

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road home

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to friends and family we know
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go__

Obituary

*As God smiled at this early morning sunrise,
He looked around finding an empty space, that was not there the night before. He looked over and thought,
"I need someone, who I can send for." After a moments pause it came to Him. "I know who I need."*

*He nodded to the great silence, the silent message was delivered on wings of wind, He came to Tarboro, Georgia.
He gathered His precious cargo and delivered him into the arms of the Master, "The deed was done."*

In the year of our Lord, October 1, 1920, a man child was born, the 5th child, and the 2nd son, Leroy, affectionately called Lee Boy, to Willie and Mary Street Reed in Camden County, Georgia. He attended the public school of this county. He was an active Sunday School student, and served as the Sunday School secretary. While a youth, he joined Clinches Chapel Church.

For four and a half years he served in the United States Army. He was very interested in community affairs. He was a member of the American Legion. He served on the Democratic Executive committee, the Department of Agriculture -ASC committee of Camden County, and he served as a Camden County Board of Education Member for 14 years.

He always had a smile and most times a word of wisdom for old and young. He never met a stranger, and he always showed love, especially with the children.

Leroy married Peggie L. Walker, and this union was blessed with five children.

He built and maintained a business in his home community for 48 years. He was respected and loved by many; and will be missed by many.

Leroy departed this life January 21, 1997. He leaves many saddened hearts, wife: Peggie L. Reed; One daughter: Deborah Reed, Douglasville, Ga.; Five sons: Clarence, Donald (Quaye), Atlanta, Georgia; Gregory and Barry (Abra), White Oak, Georgia; and Vincent (Joann), Trenton, N.J.; Two sisters: Luvenia Randall, Trenton, N.J., and Mary Butler (Joseph); One brother: Mose (Doris); Fourteen grandchildren; Two great grandchildren; Two sisters-in-laws; One Godson: Napoleon Walker, Dallas, Texas; Goddaughter: Andrie Butler; Special Nephew: Leroy Smith, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
