"Tribute to Grandma Fruit"

When I'm home all alone, I often sit around and stare,
Mostly thinking of times together, and always wishing you were here.

I think of times when we laughed, and sometimes we even cried,
When I look back at those times, Grandma, I just sit, smile, and glow with pride.

For it was at those times you gave us, courage, strength and endurance,
Never allowing us to forget, That it's God who gives us deliverance.

So with that thought in mind, I'll say, "Grandma rest in peace,"
Though God has delivered you from this world, your memories, for us, will just increase.

Saying I love you is an understatement, but the truth, and the values you've given us are priceless,
But it was your love, care, and tenderness, that gave all the meaning to "Grandma Fruit."
Tresa Weston

Obituary

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts,
Which never can be filled.*

*And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear,
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we loved so dear.*

Mrs. Feodosher (Fruit) Mainor was born January 7, 1916, in White Oak, Ga. to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Benjamin, Sr. Early in life she was joined in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Jacob Parrish, Sr. and later shared a loving marriage with Mr. Chris Mainor, Sr.; both preceded her in death. She was educated in the Camden County Public Schools.

Sister Mainor committed her life to God at an early age under Rev. Paul J. Harris, Jerusalem No.1 Baptist Church. There she became active and dedicated to her church and served as the founding president of her church choir for 13 years. She was a faithful member of the Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Union.

On December 11, 1994, the angels came to carry Sis. Mainor to her heavenly reward. Cherishing her memories are: Two daughters, Lilla Weston (Alphonso), and Jere Williams (Ike); Five sons, Jacob Parrish, Jr. (Linda), Leotis Parrish (Bertha), James Parrish (Nyanza), Theodore Parrish, and Sylvester Parrish; Six stepchildren, Chris Mainor, Jr. (Eloise), Wallace Mainor, Sr. (Annie), James Mainor (Eva), Clifford Mainor (Joanne), Janie Smith, and Ida Copeland; One brother, Eddie Benjamin, Jr. (Algertha); One brother-in-law, Jessie Mainor, Sr. (Reatha Lee); One sister-in-law, Sylvia Benjamin; One aunt and uncle-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cook; Fifty grandchildren; Fifty-two great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren, a God-daughter, Rosa Butler Lawrence, and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
