Obituary

*Tis sad to part with those we love
While here on earth we stay,
But then, a bright thought comes,
We meet again someday.
God knows how much we will miss you,
Never shall your memories fade.
Loving thoughts shall always wonder ~
To the spot where you will be laid.*

Olivia was the youngest daughter of Charles and Myrtle Armstrong. Born March 24, 1945 in Tarboro, Georgia, she attended school in Camden County School System. She graduated in the top ten of her class from Ralph J. Bunche High School in 1963.

She spent her adult life in Glynn County, Georgia where she was employed in the health care field until her illness in 1993. She was of the Jehovah's Witness faith.

She is survived by one sister, Cornelia Jackson; three brothers: Edward (Delores) Armstrong, Calvin Armstrong and Shelton (Patricia Ann) Armstrong; three aunts: Agnes Chester, Deothia Tyson and Edna Armstrong; one brother-in-law George W. Hamilton, Sr.; one special dear friend, Eugene Leggett, and a buddy, Joseph Jackson, Jr.; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; extended family includes Joe and Gloria Sears; Denise Moody, Dara Sears, Joe Watson Hamilton, Sr., and Clyde Hutchinson.

~ The Measure of A Woman ~

*Not how did she die ~ but how did she live ?
Not how did she gain ~ but what did she give ?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a woman as a woman regardless of birth.
Not what her station ~ but has she a heart
And how did she play her God-given part ?
Was she ever ready with a word of good cheer
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear ?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say
But how many were sorry when she passed away!*
