OBITUARY

For

Mrs. Effie Mae Samuels

Effie Mae Baker-Samuels was born to Peter and Ellen-Dorsey Baker May 12, 1909. She was the eighth of eleven children. She accepted her lot early in life. Only a few moments of her life did she enjoy the fruits of her labor, and the sweetness of the many challenges, as compared to the years, months, weeks or days of the bitter agony in temporary or lasting defeats.

Her last few days was spent pining and grieving for her children and family, whom she loved dearly.

Her frail stature belied the stature of courage, strength, sharp wit and sense of "Kindship," to all people--for her there were no "Big" and "little people"...there were just people.

On the wings of a Dove, her immortal soul escaped for refuge on yonders mountain, January 5, 1983, 11:47 a.m. Gilman Hospital, St. Marys, Georgia.

She leaves on board to further escape--two sisters, Mrs. Lillian M. Frazier and Mrs. Martha Fields-Ford, both of Kingsland, Gerogia, two brothers, Mr. Robert Baker Sr. and Mr. Oliver Nightingale, both of Kingsland, Georgia, five children, Robert Lee Maxie, Jacksonville, Florida, Doris M. King, Berkeley, California, William A. Robinson, Morrisville, Pennsylvania, Frances M. Robinson, Jacksonville, Florida, and Eunice E. Lewis, Kingsland, Georgia, Nine grandchildren; Robert, Michael, Kelvin, Patricia, Gregory, Francine, Harold, Bruce and Jacob, seven great-children three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Tannah Baker, Mrs. Rena Way, and Mrs. Margaret Nightingale all of Kingsland, Georgia, One daughter-in-law, Mrs. Laverne Robinson of Morrisville, Pennsylvania, Many nephews, nieces, and other relatives--and friends.
