Obituary

Why do we mourn departed friends
Or shake at death's alarm
Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.

This is just another soldier gone
To get her great reward.
She fought the fight, she kept the faith:
And now she has gone to be home with God.

Sister Clara Cato was born in Camden County, Kinlaw, Ga., November 23, 1979. She was the daughter of the late Mrs. Mary King and Mr. Squash King. She was reared in a Christian Home. She confessed Jesus as her saviour in her early age and was converted and baptized and connected to Carnegie United Methodist Church. She was later joined in Holy wedlock to Mr. James Cato, who preceded her in death. They were the parents of one daughter, Ellen Cato, and one foster daughter, both preceded her in death.

Sister Cato would often tell of her work as a servant of God, toiling in Sunday School, prayer meetings, the choir, and in whatever it takes to build up the works of the Lord. Her christian life was as the fragrance of a beautiful rose and her influence in her faithfulness in attendance to the church, will ever live wherever she resided. Being unable to attend church as she desired, her name was enrolled on the church record.

We are paying tribute to one of God's gentle women upon whose head rests a crown, laddened with sparkling jewels of her golden deeds. She was quiet in her manner, pleasant towards everyone, and enjoyed talking, and would answer joyfully when talking about the Lord and his goodness. Sister Cato would often say, "I'll be ready when the Lord call me home," She was in poor health for several months, but never complained. She bore her illness patiently and often tried to make the family feel she was alright. God hears his children when they pray. He opens doors and leads us in the way.

Early on the morning of August 10, 1971, the joyful messenger came and opened the gate for Sister Clara, she had gone the last mile of the way.

She leaves to mourn her passing, four grandchildren, Mrs. Epsie

We do not lose the ones we love
They only go before
Where there is everlasting life
Where sorrow is no more.
There the soul always live
And peace is everywhere
We do not lose the ones we love
God takes them in his care.
do his arms.
