OBITUARY

*Tis sun down children and can't be late
My master and I have an early date.
My promise kept and my duty fulfill
Cause here on earth, I did my father's will.
Tis time out my friend I just got to go.
The lily of the valley wrote it so.
He sent an angel to put me to sleep.
Now, now, why do you weep?
My harvest is all over and crops all in.
My God delivered me from this world of sin.
He closed my eyes and sealed my lips.
Touch me gentle with his finger tips.
Blow taps now, for I must call it a day
I've packed my burdens and I'm headed the other way.*

Mrs. Flora Wilson was born August 8, 1908, to the late Mr. Garfield Wilson, Sr., and the late Mrs. Amy Mitchell Wilson. She was the second oldest child. She departed this life July 14, 1982 at Gilman Hospital, St. Marys, Ga. She attended the public schools of Camden County. She united in marriage to the late Mr. Emmitt Lang. At an early age she joined Jerusalem No. 1 Baptist Church under the pastoral of the late Rev. James Pinkeny. She lived and served in this community until her death. She was a member of Jerusalem No. 1 Senior Choir and a member of the Helping Hand Club of Woodbine, Ga.

She leaves to mourn five sisters: Ms. Estella Wilson, Ophelia Brunswick, Laura Bell Kight, Lue Ida Kight of White Oak, Ga., and Mrs. Mary Edwards of Miami, Fla.; two brothers: Mr. Frank Wilson of White Oak, Ga., and Mr. Garfield Wilson, Jr., of Folkston, Ga.; three sisters-in-law: Mrs. Lue Ida Wilson and Lenora Wilson of White Oak, Ga.; and Mrs. Sarah Jane Butler of Brunswick, Ga.; six brothers-in-law: Mr. Henry Brunswick, Mr. Douglas Kight, Mr. Howard Kight and Mr. Willie Lang of White Oak, Ga.; Mr. Sole Edwards of Miami, Fla.; and Mr. Ben Butler of Jacksonville, Fla.; four nieces, nine nephews, eleven grand nieces, eight grand nephews, and two great grand nephews, three great grand nieces, and three God-children, and a devoted friend Mr. James Parrish and host of sorrowing cousins and friends.
