OBITUARY

*Now the day is over, night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening steal across the sky.
When the morning wakens, Then may I arise
Pure and fresh and sinless in thy holy eyes.*

Mrs. Marie Lockley was born February 9, 1904 to Mrs. Annie Augusta Fields. She was a well-known citizen of Camden County and was very active in the New Hope Baptist Church where she served as secretary for 35 years; president of the choir and as a member of the deaconess board, and the home mission. She was also a member of the Helping Hand Club.

She was married to Mr. Ocie Lockley and to this union three children were born. They lived together until her passing on November 21, 1981.

Surviving relatives are: a loving husband Mr. Ocie Lockley, 2 sons: Messers James Lockley, Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Willie Frank Lockley, Woodbine, Georgia; 4 daughters: Mesdames Mattie Waye and Annie Mae Jacobs, Kingsland, Georgia; Ocie Lee Armstrong, Jacksonville, Florida; and Essie Mae Armstrong, Colorado Springs, Colorado; 1 sister, Mrs. Alma Dearing, Palakta, Florida; 2 sisters-in-law: Mrs. Susie Mae Hodges, Folkston, Georgia; Mrs. Johnnie Mae Evans, Homerville, Georgia; 2 brothers-in-law: Messers James Monroe, Detroit, Michigan; Leroy Derring, Palakta, Florida; 1 daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marietta Lockley, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; 2 sons-in-law: Messers Curtis Waye, Kingsland, Georgia; Willie Armstrong, Jacksonville, Florida; Albert Armstrong, Colorado Springs, Colorado; a favorite granddaughter, Mrs. Thelma Lang, Kingsland, Georgia; 20 grand children, 37 great grand children, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; 1 God-child, Teresa Reed.

*Here I am Master
Ready to be used
Other lives to brighten and cheer
Other hearts to fill
With happiness and peace
And to scatter joy and sunshine here.*
