Meet Her Family

Sister Baker, a Camden County, Georgia native and daughter of a former slave is the oldest surviving decendent of the historic Rich William (Bill) and Botannia (Tannah) Morris family. She was born October 16, 1912 to Thomas and Lillie Myers Morris. She said, "My daddy told me to find a good man and marry him and raise a family," (Marriage - I Corinthians 7:39). She was married to Robert Baker from January 1, 1930 to February 6, 1987 and together they raised 14 children (Children - Isaiah 6:3-8). Her family salutes her for the love and guidance she gave them all.
