

Tribute

1 Thessalonians Chapter 5 verses 14-18 says, And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone. Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else. Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

C - Clothe herself with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience (Colossians 3:12)

© - Overflowed with love and peace through the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name.

R - Rejoiced in all things!

A - Anointed of God and did His will.

M - Ministered words of encouragement to all who came her way.

A - All things worked together for her good because she loved God and was called according to His purpose.

E - Endured through various tests and trials, proving her faith in our Father God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

B - Being predestined according to the plan of Him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of His will, in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of His glory. Ephesians 1:11-12.

A - And her wisdom gave her patience, causing her to overlook any offenses.

K - Kind and compassionate, she beared with others in love.

E - Eternally devoted to family and friends, her one most desire: "That each would be saved and overflowing with the Holy Spirit."

R - Returned to whence she came to God Our Father through the Holy Spirit in the mighty name of Jesus Our Lord!
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

Blessings,
The Family

Obituary

Sis. Cora Mae Baker was born April 16, 1921 in the Kinlaw Community to the late Chester Arthur Holzendorf and Bessie Wade Holzendorf.

She joined the church at an early age under the pastorage of Rev. Malachi Way. She served faithfully as president of the Usher Board and Senior Choir. She also served as treasurer of the Minister's Wives Auxilliary, a member of the Mission Board and Choir #3 of Evergreen Baptist Church. She was also a member of Mt. Carmel Baptist Missionary Association Union, Gross, Fla.

She received her education in the public schools of Camden County, and received a paraprofessional certificate from Brunswick Junior College.

She later met and married the late Rev. Walter Brown Baker, June 19, 1937. They resided in Gross, Fla. from 1937 to 1946, and later moved to Kingsland, Ga. This union was blessed with four children. One son preceded her in death.

On January 14, 1995, the angels descended from heaven in a beautiful white chariot to take Sister Baker home to be with God.

Sis. Cora Mae Baker leaves to cherish her memories, three children: Two devoted daughters, Louvenia Simmons and Bessie Baker; one son, Tony Baker, all of Kingsland, Ga. Grandson, Jermaine Baker; granddaughter, Lynette Baker. Daughters-In-Law: Leona Baker Fields, and Martina Baker, all of Camden County. Two brothers: William Holzendorf, Fernandina Beach, Fla. and Ray Fields Holzendorf (Sadie), Kingsland, Ga. Three sisters: Elizabeth Dilworth, Audrey Merrow (George), and Bessie Lee Dawson (Isaac) of Kingsland, Ga. Brothers-In-Laws: Major Mitchell (Sadie), Kingsland, Ga., Rev. Henry Baker (Alice), and Dea. Austin Baker of Jacksonville, Fla; Steve Baker (Marie), and Joseph C. Baker (Louverta) of O'Neal Fla. John Baker (Vera), and Elliot Richo, Fernandina Beach, Fla. Sister-In-Law; Ora Mitchell, Gross, Fla. Foster daughter; Rhettta Mae Moore, Port Authur, Texas. A host of nephews, nieces, relatives, and sorrowing friends.
