OBITUARY

*With the gift of life I live with the love in my heart,
I live without the breath they say I've gone,
But with love in your heart will live on.*

Sandy Carmicheal Myers was born February 13, 1956 in Folkston, Ga. He was the son of Ms. Mabel Hill and the late Ralph H. Myers, Jr. He resided in Woodbine, Ga., and owned a local retail clothing store in Kingsland. He received his education at Matilda Elementary, the public schools of Camden County, and Savannah State College. He later joined the Navy. He was married to UnFaye Pray, and from this union, two children, Ralpheal T. Myers and Sandy T. Myers were born.

He leaves to mourn his passing, two daughters: Sandy T. Myers, and Ralpheal T. Myers; One son: Trevor Robinson; Mother, Mabel Hill; three brothers: Ralph E. Myers (Venita), Mark A. Myers, and LaDon Baker; Four sisters: Agatha E. Harris, Ingrid A. Cales, Woodbine, Ga. Phyllis D. Mathis (Lewis), Atlanta, Ga., and Stacie P. Myers, Hollywood, Fla.; Grandparents: Verdell and Juanita Hill; Four Aunts; Four Uncles; Two great-grand uncles; One great-grand aunt: Reather Lee Mainor, Woodbine, Ga.; Godmother: Vertie B. Davis, Miami, Fla.; Special friends and cousins: Greg and Russell Myers; A special friend: Michelle Miller; and a host of sorrowing nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The End Of The Road

*When I have come to the end of the road,
I should like to look back and see,
That I have done my very best,
with the trust that's placed in me.*

*I should like to know that I never have
by action, word, or deed.
Betrayed a given confidence or forsaken a friend in need.*

*I should like the consolation,
when I've traveled the very last mile
To know I've meant something to someone and cause those in sorrow to smile.*

*I know that I shall be happy,
if in the heart of just one,
I can leave one lingering memory of something good I have done.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
