OBITUARY

*Tis sundown children and can't be late
My Master and I have an early date.
My promise kept and my duty fulfill
'Cause here on earth, I did my Father's will.
Tis time out my friend, I just got to go.
The Lily of the Valley wrote it so.
He sent an angel to put me to sleep.
Now, now, why do you weep?
My harvest is all over and crops all in.
My God delivered me from this world of sin.
He closed my eyes and sealed my lips.
Touched me gentle with his finger tips.
Blow taps now, for I must call it a day.
I've packed my burdens and I am headed the other way.
Cry only now for me
Quietly in the still of the night,
For I'll be waiting for your heavenly flight.*

Mrs. Ophelia Wilson Brunwsick was born February 28, 1916 to the late Mr. Garfield Wilson, Sr., and the late Mrs. Amy Mitchell Wilson. She was the sixth oldest child. She departed this life May 21, 1984 at Gilman Hospital, St. Marys, Georgia. She attended the public schools of Camden County. She united in marriage to Mr. Henry Brunswick in 1934 for 50 years, which lasted until death.

At an early age she joined Jerusalem No. 1 Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Paul Harris. She also served as Church Mother and a member of Widow's Son Chapter Order of the Eastern Star No. 408 where she served faithfully until her health failed her. She was also a member of Jerusalem No. 1 Senior Choir and a member of the Woodbine Community Club of Woodbine, Georgia.

She leaves to cherish her memories her husband, Deacon Henry Brunswick; six foster children: Pearlie Mae Slaughter, Robert Roche, Jr., Curtis Hicks, Melody Roche, Alonzo Smith and Jackie White; four sisters: Ms. Laura Bell Kight, Lue Ida Kight, Estella Wilson of White Oak, Ga., and Mrs. Mary Edwards of Miami, Fla.; two brothers Mr. Frank Wilson of White Oak, Ga.; and Mr. Garfield Wilson of Folkston, Ga.; one sister-in-law, three brothers-in-law, four neices, seven nephews and a host of grand and great-grand nieces and nephews, cousins and friends; three God-children, Sarah Lee, Johnnie Mae and Asilee, and one step-son, Leroy Brunswick, Sr.
