

John M. Carter (gone to glory)

Obituary of Deacon James L. Carter

Dea. James L. Carter was born the 18th of August, 1904, in Jacksonville, Florida, to the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Carter. He departed this life May 9, 1990, at Flagler Hospital, St. Augustine, Florida.

The family moved to Hastings in 1912. He was converted at an early age and joined the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. J. Mcphaid. James served as superintendent of the Sunday School and was a Deacon. He was loved by all he came in contact with. He will be missed by his family and christian brothers and sisters. He was a veteran of World War II where he served in the Air Force. He was married to Annie Jennings in 1941.

He leaves to mourn a loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Annie Carter of Hastings, Florida; three brothers, Deacon Nathaniel Carter, Deacon Bennie Carter of Hastings, Florida, and Rev. Joseph Carter of Jacksonville, Florida; three sisters-in-law, Sis. Esther Carter of Hastings, Florida, Sis. Essie Mae Carter of Palm Coast, Florida, Sis. Louella B. Carter of Jacksonville, Florida; granddaughter, Glenda Blackburn, Bermuda; two great-grandchildren; a devoted guardian, Margaret Bostic; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and sorrowing friends.

*I have done my work,
I sang my song,
and now I'll go where I belong.*

CARTER - Funeral Services for Deacon James Carter, who passed May 9, 1990, at Flagler Hospital, will be held SATURDAY at 1 p.m. in Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Hastings, Fla. He leaves to mourn his demise: 3 devoted brothers, Deacon Nathan and Bennie Carter, Hastings, Rev. Joseph and his wife Luella Carter, Pastor of Galilee Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Fla.; sisters-in-law, Mrs. Essie Mae and Esther Carter; 2 very devoted nieces, Ms. Claudia Jones and Ms. Florine Fair; other nieces, nephews, cousins; and a host of sorrowing friends.
