Obituary

Now the laborer's task is o'er
Now the battle day is past
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.

On October 3, 1977 the angel of death winged himself into a room at Glynn-Brunswick Memorial Hospital and granted to Pearl Lang Noble her wish to join her loving husband in the home of their Lord and Savior.

Pearl, the only child of Wilmont and Susie Lang, was born June 5, 1910 in Camden County, Georgia. She attended the public schools of this community.

In 1940 she was joined in marriage to Daniel Noble, Sr., and to this union four children were born.

Early in life she joined Zion Rock Baptist Church and served faithfully. Her manner was very quiet in the home and community. She leaves to mourn 4 daughters, Beatrice Zow; Gladys Brunswick and Doris Noble, White Oak, Ga., Florence Henderson, Folkston, Ga.; 1 son, Daniel Noble, Jr., White Oak, Ga.; 1 uncle, David Crummeil, Ocala, Fla.; 1 aunt, Cora Crummeil, Miami, Fla.; 3 sons-in-law, Alex Zow, Leroy Brunswick and H.H. Henderson; 1 brother-in-law, Sterling Noble, Folkston, Ga.; 1 sister-in-law Clarissa Campbell, Winter Park, Fla.; 20 grandchildren; 1 grandson-in-law; 3 great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and saddened friends.

"Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now thy servant sleeping."
