The Lord made a very special person when he made Lilla.
He blessed her with a kind heart and a generous nature
with a gift for sharing His love.

Best of all, He made her our wife, mother, sister,
Auntie, cousin and friend.

And for all that we will be grateful.

You have a very special place in our hearts.

We love you, The Family

Home At Last

*When the day is done, one figure turns and says a last good-bye,
Although we cannot understand where they must go or why.
But as they leave our sorrow and sad tears behind,
They move ahead to seek the peace that every soul must find.*

*For now they sail a deifferent ship, upon a different sea,
A voyage filled with love and hope, and new discovery.
And when their journey brings them to that distant lighted shore They'll be greeted by the outstretched arms of those who've gone before.*

*And people they have known and loved, and voices
from their past,
Will be singing out the welcome news...
that they are home at last.*

Profile of Life

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1

Mrs. Lilla P. Weston was born to the late Jacob and Feodosher Parrish on January 17, 1934, in White Oak, Georgia. She was the eldest child in this union. At an early age she accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour and joined Jerusalem #1 Missionary Baptist Church. She participated in many ministries with the church including the choir, Deaconess and kitchen ministries.

Alphonso and Lilla were married in Kingsland, Georgia on November 17, 1956. This union was blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Tresa C. Weston.

On Friday, July 14, 2006, Sister Weston found eternal rest with the Lord. She leaves cherished memories that will live forever in the hearts of her family and friends. Survivors include: a very loving and devoted husband of 49 years, Alphonso Weston; her daughter, Tresa C. Weston; a surrogate son, James J. Parrish (Michelle); a devoted uncle, Eddie Benjamin; one sister, Jerelene P. Williams (Isaiah); five brothers, Jacob Parrish, Leotis Parrish (Bertha), James Parrish (Nyanza), Theodore Parrish, and Sylvester Parrish; two step-sisters, Janie Smith and Ida Copeland; three step-brothers, Chris Mainor, Jr., James Mainor, and Clifford Mainor (Joanne); three brothers-in-law, Bennie Weston (Daisy), Calvin Weston (Barbara), and Bobby Weston (Ella); two sisters-in-law, Laura Weston and Betty Cane (Steve); two grandsons, James J. Parrish, Jr. and Christopher Parrish; two great-grandchildren, André Yeager and Jayla Parrish; two God-children, Johntae Banks and Denise Dallas; a devoted friend, Gloria Walker; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see;

If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,

While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll
miss me too;*

But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,

That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.

And when I walked through heaven's gate, I felt so much at home

When God looked down and smiled at me, from His golden throne.

*He said, "this is eternity, and all I've promised you,
Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think
we're far apart,*

For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
