

Our Tribute

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while –
 Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
 And hug your sorrow to
 You through the years,
 But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
 And for my sake, and in my name
 Live on and do all things the same,
 Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
 But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
 Reach out your hand in
 Comfort and in cheer
 And I in turn will comfort
 You and hold you near;
 And never, never be afraid to die,
 For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Acknowledgment

The family acknowledge with humble gratitude the numerous acts of kindness and love that you have shown so graciously upon them. For each visit, prayer, and every thoughtful expression, may God who sustaineth us all Richly Bless You.

Obituary

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high shall abide under the shadow of the almighty.

91 Psalm ~ 1

Ella Hutchinson Brown was born February 6, 1920 to the late Moses and Annie Gusta Hutchinson.

At an early age she accepted Christ as her Savior and joined Ebenezer Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Paul Love, where she remained a faithful member under the leadership of Reverend James Williams.

She was united in matrimony to the late Thurley Brown on October 19, 1946. She was a virtuous woman, a good mother and grandmother.

Preceded in death by one son, McDonald Knight, she leaves to cherish her memory three daughters: Mackie Lou Council of Cocoa Beach, Florida, Ella L. (James) Govan of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Patricia (James) Brown of Woodbine, Georgia; three sons: Hamp (Icie) Brown, Luscious (Ruth) Brown, and Robert (Krystal) Brown, all of Woodbine, Georgia; two brothers: Floyd (Dorothy) Hutchinson of Woodbine, Georgia and Moses Hutchinson of Boston, Massachusetts; two sisters: Betty Jean Long of Hampton, Virginia and Alice Postell of Augusta, Georgia; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, friends, and two special friends, Anna Parrish and Mary Courson.

Sunset and evening tides and one clear call for me, may their be no mourning at the bar when I put out to sea.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me. . . .
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.*

*She said my place was ready
In heaven far above;
And that I'd have to leave behind,
All those I dearly love.*
