Obituary

*"God saw you getting weary
He did what he thought was best
He put his arms around you and whispered, come home and rest."*

Tommy Lee Pinkney was born December 16, 1962 in Miami, Fla. He attended school through the 5th grade in Dade County, Florida. Later he attended Camden County High School, where he graduated in 1981. He was on the football and track team at CCHS. He was an active player with the community baseball team. This year the team won the trophy and dedicated it to his honor.

He joined Oak Hill Methodist Church and later joined Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church where he served well.

On Thursday Evening, May 25, 1995 at Camden County Medical Center, God saw that he was getting weary and beckoned him to come home.

He leaves to mourn a loving mother, Nora Gibbs, and Stepfather, Alonza Gibbs of White Oak, Georgia; His father, Johnnie C. Pinkney and Stepmother, Eartha Mae, Miami, Fla.; Grandmothers, Phyllis Butler, and Laura Robinson; 2 brothers, Johnnie C. Pinkney, Jr., (Victoria) St. Marys, Ga.; Joseph L. Pinkney (Fiance: Dana), White Oak, Ga.; 3 sisters, Annie L. Baker (Gregory), Woodbine, Ga.; Karon Y. Pinkney and Lora Gibbs of White Oak, Ga.; 4 nephews, Johnnie C. Pinkney III; Rashad Pinkney; Wallace Pinkney III, Gregory Baker, Jr.; 2 nieces, Alicia Pinkney, Katlyn Pinkney; 15 special aunts, and 11 uncles; Godson, Altona Marcell Butler; a host of cousins and friends.

*I needed the quiet, so he drew me aside,
Into the shadows where he could confide
Away from the hustle where all the day long,
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet, through at first I rebelled,
But gently, so gently, my cross he upheld,
and whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Though weakened in body my spirit took wings,
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay,
He loved me so gently, he drew me away.*
