Obituary

Mrs. Malinda Street was the third child born to Josh and Julia Easton Hill, July 14, 1876 in Camden County. She attended Bolen Haven School, Jacksonville, Florida.

She joined Brown Chapel AME Church and was a faithful member until her health failed. During her time of service to her church, she served as choir treasurer and class leader. Being a seamstress she made the dresses for her choir's anniversaries.

She was married to Mr. Lee Street for forty-five years. He preceded her in death, November 22, 1955.

Her survivors are: One foster son, Willie Parrish, Jr. Woodbine, Georgia; two brothers, Harold and Verdell Hill of Palatka, Florida; one niece, Evangelist Willie Ree Stokes, Brunswick, Georgia; two grand-nephews, Winfred Street, White Oak, Georgia, and Fred Street, Franklin, Kentucky; One God-son, Leroy Reed, White Oak, Georgia; and a host of other relatives, nieces, nephews, grands, great-grands, and friends.

Jesus the Way to the Father

*Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you.*

*I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also.*

John 14: 1-3
