

Daniel's Poem

"Resting In The Arms of Jesus"

Life is filled with turmoil and despair, setbacks and shortcomings, day after day;
we experience test after test; in the mist of our storms, sorrow, and discomforts we have an assurance, Jesus says. For we which have believed do enter into that rest. We sometimes find it difficult to release, love ones who have gone to be with the Lord above; but we have a comforter, who's name is Jesus who dries our weeping eyes and surrounds us with peace and love.
As we examine our life, which is but a vapor, what kind of fruit does our tree bear?
Will we be able to join our loved one's in that resting place? Or when they look around the Heavenly choir, will you be standing up there?
Reality is that we, with our best efforts, cannot control time; but our destiny is in our hands and controlling it that's a must. So when we stand at the Judgement seat of God spotless and without blemish; we can see our loved ones, resting in the arms of Jesus.

Obituary

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I, Chris have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord shall give me at that day; and not for me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

II Timothy 4: 7-8

On January 11, 2000, the angel of silence came into the room of Brother Chris Drummond and sealed the lips of a Christian loving son, father, brother, and uncle.

Chris was born on May 16, 1968 to Gene and Phyllis A. Drummond of Woodbine, Camden County, Georgia. He was raised and educated in the Camden County School system.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children: Christopher, Gene, Brittany, Dashia, and Josh; his father Gene (Shirley) and mother Phyllis; sisters: Monica (Shawn) Wade, Ke'Shuna, and Larissa; brothers: Carlton and Kevin (Penny); devoted grandparents Laurie and Lonnie Mae Drummond; three nieces and two nephews; a special niece Shawmiyah; God mother Mrs. Ida Scott, God sister Stephanie Hamilton, and God child Kaven Walker; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is still, a place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled and after a lonely heartache and many a silent tear but always a beautiful memory of one we loved so dear.

*If I could speak to you today
If I could sit and talk for a while
If I could laugh and share a smile
If I could speak to you today
And share with you what I'd like to say I'd say praise God I'm free of pain,
My body is whole and Im well again.
There is no hurting, there are no fears,
I'm with our God and I'm free at last,
Think of me now — not my pain of the past.
Please understand God will comfort you,
He'll see your pain, He'll see you through.
He'll walk with you every step of the way,
He'll guide and comfort you everyday.
He knows and understands your loss
He, too suffered that death on the cross.
These are the words my brother would say
If he could speak to you today.*
