Obituary

*He is hope for all the helpless,
The way for those who seek,
A light for for those in darkness,
A helper for the weak.
He is freedom for the prisoner,
A ransom for our shame,
He is saviour Lord and master,
Jesus is His name.*

Brother Joe Kite, Sr. was a native born Camden Countian and live here all of his entire life. At an early age he joined and was baptized into New Bethel Methodist Church. Upon relocating to Woodbine, he moved his membership to Oak Hill United Methodist Church. Here he served until his health would no longer permit him to do so. He was joined in Holy Matrimony to Ardena Hamilton, who preceded him in death. Later he married Bertha Fulford, who also preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memories: Five Daughters: Janie Walker (Emanuel), Verdie Lee Mainor, White Oak, Ga., Emma Hill (McArthur), Woodbine, Ga., Mary Walker (James Laverne), Berlie Mae Jones, Miami, Fl.
