Obituary

Mrs. Lue Retha Taylor Cannon was born in Camden County, Georgia, July 16, 1922. She was the daughter of Boston Elliot and Essie May Simpson Taylor.

At an early age, she joined Mount Sinai Baptist Church. She attended the Honey Creek School.

The family later moved from Waverly, Georgia to Woodbine, Georgia; however, her membership and attendance remained at Mount Sinai Baptist Church.

Lue Retha was first married to David Mitchell who was accidentally killed; she later married Robert Cannon, who also, preceeded her in death.

Her health began to fail and she moved to Daytona Beach, Florida, to live with her sister Rutha. There she remained for a period of time. Then she went to live in Savannah, Georgia, with her sister Eliza. Because of circumstances she became a resident of the West View Nursing Home in Savannah, Georgia.

She departed this life Thursday, March 9, 1995, at Candler Hospital in Savannah, Georgia, leaving to cherish her memory four brothers: Michael Taylor of Daytona Beach, Florida, Charlie Taylor and Theodore Taylor both of Woodbine, Georgia and Leroy Taylor of Palestine, Florida; four sisters: Eliza Rudolph of Savannah, Georgia, Louise Taylor of Woodbine, Georgia, Rutha Scott and Gladys Jackson both of Daytona Beach, Florida; two uncles: Fred Taylor of Orlando, Florida and Evenor Taylor of Brunswick, Georgia; three aunts: Lacy Edwards of Perry, Florida, Bertha Rudolph of Woodbine, Georgia and Bella West of Woodbine, Georgia; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast,
Sweetly my soul shall rest.*

*God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."*

*The weary house, the days of pain, the sleepless nights are past.
The ever patient worn out frame has found rest at last.
Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast,
Sweetly my soul shall rest.*
