

"I NEEDED THE QUIET"

*I needed the quiet so he drew me aside.
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross he upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly he drew me away.*

*I needed the quiet. No prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet so he drew me aside.*

Obituary

MARY L. PINKNEY was born November 25, 1891, in White Oak, Georgia. She was the fourth of nine children born to the Late Jack and Rhodie Randolph.

At an early age she confessed Christ and became a member of Brown Chapel A.M.E. Church.

On June 25, 1909, she was joined in Holy Matrimony with the Late Mr. Johnny C. Pinkney. The union was blessed with a son, Mr. Ben Pinkney, who preceded her in death.

She later moved to Miami, Florida, where she made her home. Later she united with Greater Bethel A.M.E. Church. She served faithfully on the Stewardess Board and Lilly White until her health failed.

Mary Pinkney was a loyal Christian with radiant faith and endurance, with many fine noble traits of character and virtue. Her cheerful disposition helped her bear her suffering the past few months of her life with patience and fortitude.

On Monday, August 16, 1982, the Lord called her to the great beyond.

She leaves to mourn: two brothers: Johnny Randolph of Chester, Philadelphia, and Nolan Randolph of Fernandina Beach, Florida; eight grandchildren: Elouise Johnson, Ida Harris, Laura B. Butler, Lucy Mae Stanley, Johnny Pinkney, Emory Pinkney, Ben Pinkney and Edward Austell; two granddaughters-in-law; three grandsons-in-law; twenty-two great-grandchildren; twelve great-great-grandchildren; two great-great-great-grandchildren; Dale and Richard whom she reared; nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends. ,and also two sister-in-laws Carrie Randolph and Loveie Randolph.
