When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears;
And hug your sorrow to you through the years;
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each working hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer
And I in truth will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never, be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.

*We sleep, so restful; so at peace
so filled with the assurance of a waking,
a waking no to earth's contest again,
but to eternity's enviroment and as sociations and glory.*

*Planted to death to spring up in life;
to live, not in time, but in eternity in eternal victories.
No more sickness, no more pain; no more sorrow,
but rise to glory; and to enter upon our New life in a heavenly land with God and Christ and the Sanctified.*

Obituary

Life is real, life is earnest and the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art to dust Returnest was not spoken of the Soul.

Mrs. Malinda L. Cherry passed into eternal rest on Sunday, March 3, 1991. Mrs. Cherry was born December 31, 1939 to the union of the late Hurey and Florence Singleton, Miller.

She attended school in the public school system of Glynn and Camden Counties and special training as a nurses aid in Augusta, Georgia. While living in Augusta in 1972, she met and married the late Sargent Willie Cherry.

She was a member of Carnegie Chapel Methodist Church for several years. Due to her extended illness, she has not been able to serve as her heart desired. She was generally quiet and unassumming, and well liked by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a son, Mr. Demetrius M. Wilson of Kinlaw, Ga.; a deloted friend, Mr. Lorman Roberts; a brother, Mr. Oliver Miller of Clairton, Pennsylvania, and a step mother, Mrs. Evelyn Miller of Pensacola, Florida. She leaves a very special cousin, Mrs. Clydenerda Williams who were always by her side. Others left to mourn are several uncles, neices and nephews, brothers and sister-in-laws, numerous cousins, two grand aunts, relatives and friends.
