OBITUARY

God's garden had a need for a flower
It had grown for a time here below.
But in tender love, He took it above
In a lovelier garden to grow.

On the morning of April 25, 1981 the death angel came and sealed the lips of Vernie Lee Williams.

She was born March 18, 1932 in Camden County. She was the daughter of the late Oliver Young and Clamatine Young of Ocala, Fla.

She was a member of Zion Rock Baptist Church, White Oak, Ga.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a devoted husband, Theodore Williams, Jr., of Woodbine Ga. A loving mother, Clamatine Young of Ocala, Fla.; two sons Jesse Lee Gibbs and Jerry Williams of Woodbine, Ga.; two daughters, Annette Roberts of St. Marys, Ga., Jannie Williams of F.V.S. College; 1 daughter-in-law, Patricia Gibbs; one son-in-law, Isadore Roberts, Jr. of St. Marys, Ga.; 2 sisters, Rhodie Doss of Detroit, Mich., Sarah Walker of Woodbine, Ga.; 2 brothers, Thadius Young, Alphonso Young, Ocala, Fla.; nine sister-in-laws, Carolyn Cohens, Mary Williams, Delores Butler and Ollie Belle Williams of White Oak, Ga., Loretta Kight of Woodbine, Ga., Burnella Young of Ocala, Fla., Geraldine Williams of Yulee, Fla., Ophrenelle Williams of Trenton, New Jersey and Dolly Young of Kingsland, Ga.; 7 brother-in-laws, David Williams, Joe Williams, and Lucious Williams, of White Oak, Ga., Hubert Walker and Joe Kight of Woodbine, Ga., Onie Lee Butler of White Oak, Ga., and Lawrence Williams, of Yulee, Fla.

Five grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, and sorrowing friends.
