Obituary

*"Thus star by star declines
Till all are past away
As morning high and higher shines
To a purer and perfect day."*

Christianity does not exempt one from death, it only insures triumph over death. All eventually must die.

Mr./Onie Butler, Sr. was born October 30, 1911 in Camden County, Georgia. Here he was reared and attended the public schools of this county.

He felt the need of the Higher Source while quite young and became a member of Clinches Chapel United Methodist Church. He served here until his death.

On March 24, 1934 he was joined in holy wedlock to Phyllis Rudolph and to this union fifteen children were born; one whom preceded him in death.

Mr. Butler was known widely and was loved by many who knew him. He departed this life Monday, July 4, 1971. He leaves to mourn, a loving wife, Phyllis; eight daughters, Ruby, Stella, Mary Elizabeth, Irene, Shirley, and Shelia Butler, White Oak, Ga., Nora Pinkney, Miami, Fla., Katie Brown, Woodbine, Ga.; six sons, Jimmie Lee, Onie Lee, Jr., Willie Lee, Arthur, Clifton, and Roosevelt Butler, all of White Oak, Ga.; one foster son, Herman Short, Miami, Fla.; three sisters, Renelda Shaw, Glennville, Ga., Louida Wilson, White Oak, Ga., Inez Rudolph, Folkston, Ga.; seven brothers, Ben and Joseph Butler, Jacksonville, Fla., Liston Wilson, Folkston, Ga., Grover, Townsend, Mose and Clifton Butler, White Oak, Ga.; five aunts, Hattie James, Sina Bias, Eliza Rudolph, Sara Jane Butler, and Lillie Butler; four daughters-in-law, Deloris, Laura Bell, and Aldora, White Oak, Ga. and Francis, Brunswick, Ga.; one foster daughter-in-law, Ada Short, Miami, Fla.; two sons-in-law, Johnny C. Pinkney, Sr., Miami, Fla. and Hamp Brown, Woodbine, Ga.; a devoted friend, Chester Allen of White Oak, Ga.; nine brothers-in-law, eight sisters-in-law, thirty grandchildren, a host of loving nephews, nieces, and sorrowing friends.

*"Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark."*
